SENT TO: Amconsul NAPLES NIACT 491

FOR Victor Purse with Saud Party

Origin

Info:

Comments Ambassador, yourself and in your discretion comments King desired on full program of honors now under consideration for arrival New York January 29.

Destroyer Squadron consisting one large Destroyer Leader, probably other vessels, would rendezvous with CONSTITUTION at Ambrose Light where Rear Admiral Dudley, former COMIDEASTFOR would board CONSTITUTION with Pilot. Destroyer Squadron would then escort CONSTITUTION to quiet waters Gravesend Bay where King and principal members party (not to exceed sixteen) would be transferred by Admiral's barge to Destroyer Leader. Twenty-one gun salute would be fired as party transferred. Destroyer Leader would then proceed alone to Pier on North River where it would dock to land principal members party. Twenty-one gun salute would be given as King leaves. Ambassador Lodge and UN Chief Protocol would receive King at Pier with appropriate ceremony including Band and full military honors. If weather prohibited transfer to Destroyer Leader, King would remain on CONSTITUTION with Destroyer Leader as escort.

Remainder King's party would disembark from CONSTITUTION at American Export Line Pier. Department Security Division has been advised.
